RE: Inquiry from Amazon customer Maison Terre

From: Maison Terre (lbymbj550j2kq7d@marketplace.amazon.com)

You are incorrect. The sell yours option is for those who actually do sell the same product. If you are a computer store and sell Acers, HPs, etc. you have the option to sell whatever models you actually do sell. You cannot co-opt an ASIN for an HP and sell a Chinese knockoff instead. This is no different. We don't care if you sell a ton of burdock root. You cannot claim, however, that you sell our name-brand burdock root. You are clearly ignorant of trademark and copyright law. Unfortunately for you, you have already been reported to Amazon. Your listing speaks for itself. You clearly state that you sell the product by Maison Terre yet you buy it from Frontier.

you have been reported to Amazon. Also, attacking our company elsewhere is ridiculous. Shows how immature your company is. You were wrong last fall when you did this last time, Amazon keeps track of your immaturity and it will eventually lead to you being unable to sell on amazon. We are in full right to sell this product. You do not own a monopoly on it. Otherwise, Amazon would not provide a "Sell yours here" button for others to list it and allow others to sell it. You do not grow Burdock Root. You buy it from a wholesaler like we do, re-label it, and re-sell it. Grow up.
